to make the penalty for Riley C. Wallace, slayer of her husband, more severe than twenty-five years' imprisonment in the Penitentiary.

Wallace, who is 50 years old, was charged with murder in the first degree, but he was allowed to plend guilty to murder in the second degree. Judge Taylor passed sentence on him, sentencing him to the Penitentiary for twenty-five years. Hearing the court's sentence, Mrs. Hearing the court's sentence, Mrs. Hearty approached Judge Taylor and requested him to make the punishment more severe, saying she did not believe twenty-five years long enough for the crime committed by Wallace.

Judge Taylor replied that in view of the age of the prisoner he considered the punishment equivalent to a life sentence and thought the ends of justice were being maintained an sending Wallace to prison for twenty-five years.

Operators and Miners of Bitumi nous Fields Far Apart in Their Demands.

National Organization of Men, as Well as State Unions, Has Large Defense Fund and May Try Fight.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 3.- The meeting of the operators and miners in joint conference to-day was called this morning, in order that the Joint Scale Committee might report its progress and ask for additional instructions.

After the reading of the Scale Committee's report, Mr. Robbins, the leader of the operators, moved an adjournment after appointing the committee composed of one operator and one miner from each State to fix the date for the next meeting of the joint conference. The following ommittee was appointed:

Operators-H. N. Taylor, Illinois; J. C. Kolsen, Indiana; J. W. Winder, Ohio; F. L. Robbins, Pennsylvania.

Miners—Thomas J. Reynolds, Illinois;

George Hargrove, Indiana; W. H. Has-kins, Ohio; Patrick Dolan, Pennsylvania. This committee will meet in Indianapo-lis on February 15 to arrange for another meeting of the joint conference. DELEGATES ENCITED.

The Scale Committee reported the present wage scale as its ultimatum, the operators insisting that only the 1902 scale, which is equivalent to a reduction of 12 per cent in wages, it is claimed, would satisfy them.

When the convention adjourned, the operators left the hall and the miners went into executive session.

When the convention adjourned, the operators left the hall and the miners went into executive session.

The possibility of a final disagreement and suspension of work is a topic of conversation among the miners and operators. Leaders on both sides refuse to go into a discussion of the general effect of a suspension of operations on April 15.

"All I will say at this time." said W. D. Ryan, secretary-treasurer of the Illinois miners, and chairman of the joint Scale Committee. "is that a suspension in the bituminous fields would be a national calamity, and if continued for any length of time would, in comparison of effects, dwarf the anthracite strike into Insignificance. Every effort should be made to prevent it.

"The miners have $1,000,000 in their national treasury. The Illinois miners have $00,000 in their own treasury, and the other States have enough money to raise it to $1,000,000, making $2,000,000 of cash available for any emergency. The strike assessment on the paying membership of the organization, which is approximately $00,000 at this time, has just been increased from 10 cents to 25 cents a month, which would bring approximately $35,000 this month and in March. The suspension of operations in the four States would mean that 117,000 of the membership would go out, and after April 1 would not be on the assessment list."

HAZARD IN HURRY TO BE SENTENCED.

Judge Adams Disposes of Many Federal Prisoners Indicted by Grand Jury.

Federal prisoners against whom indictments were returned last week were brought into the United States District Court yesterday to make their pleas. Harry Hazard, who, with James Mor gap, was charged with robbing the Post Office at Cardwell, Mo., pleaded guilty. He immediately asked Judge Adams to pass sentence upon him. Judge Adams said: "I guess that you can wait two minutes," and then sentenced him to five years' hard labor in the Missouri Penitentiary at Jefferson City.

Morgan claimed he was innocent and Morgan claimed be was innocent and pleaded not guilty. Hazard refused to reveal the name of his confederate. He asked Judge Adams to instruct the jailer to allow him exercise while in jail.

On his promise that he would "become a good man and not read law," Judge Adams assessed the minimum sentence against John Noehre, former Postmaster at Antonio, Mo., who pleaded guilty to the charge of appropriating 50 of the Post Office funds.

Judge Adams told him that he could give him fifteen years in prison, but was lerient and fixed his punishment at six months in the Iron County jail, allowing the time he has already served to apply on the sentence.

They were told by Professor William H. Grocott, instructor in machinery, that there was no room for them, and that Greeott, instructor in machinery, that there was no room for them, and that they must leave their work unfinished until they could be accommodated. The graduates believed that the professor was aggrieved because they had not invited him to their banquet at the Planters, and appealed to Professor Calvin M. Woodward, dean of the school.

Professor Woodward told Arthur C. Dixon, who spoke to him about that question, that the boys would be allowed to complete their work, as a matter of courtesy, if there was room, but that they could not expect to usurp the places of students paving for their tuition. Speaking of the affair yesterday. Professor Woodward sald:

"The Manual Training School differs from the ordinary school, where you can give a pupil a chair and teach him. In manual training each student must have a lathe and the tools to work with. If every lathe is taken by a student paying for his tuition, the one who has been graduated cannot expect to be allowed to finish his work, when there is no room for him. It's just the same as in a sleeper. If every berth is filled, I cannot expect to get a berth, can I? That is what I told the boys who came to me, and they seemed to understand."

President Harper of Chicago University Says the Institution Stands for Free Speech.

Chicago, Feb 2.-Members of the University of Chicago faculty may criticise at will, favorably or otherwise, the actions of John D. Rockefeller, the institution's most liberal benefactor, without fear of dismissal.

This announcement was made by President Harper to the senior class at the university to-day in response to a question. It was asked by one student: "Would any professor be dismissed for

"Would any professor be dismissed for criticising John D. Rockefeller in relation to the Standard Oil Company and public affairs?"

President Harper replied:
"The members of the faculty have a right to say as they please. The university stands for free speech. No professor has ever been dismissed for expressing his opinion on any subject."

GAS COMPANY'S FRANCHISE. Privilege Granted to Lay Mains

in St. Louis County. The St. Louis County Gas Company, an edjunct of the Luclede Gas Light Company in St. Louis, was granted a franchise yesterday by the St. Louis County Court at Clayton to lay mains, pipes and other necessary appurtenances throughout the entire county, excepting the incorporated towns. The petition for the franchise had been pending before the court for the last six months and was promoted by Paul Cable. By the conditions of the franchise, the company is to accept the terms imposed by the County Court within five days, and deposit $1,000 in cash as an evidence of good faith. A penal bond in the sum of $5,000 is to be put up within twenty days, and renewed every five years. Plans are to be submitted to the court within ninety days.

to be submitted to the court within ninety days.

The company is obligated to supply a sufficient quantity of gas, equal in quality to that furnished consumers in St. Louis. The maximum price is to be $1.30 net per 1,000 cubic feet, with the privilege to impose a penalty of 20 per cent for failure on the part of the patron to pay at the time agreed upon.

Within twenty days the company is to put up $1,000 in cash in addition to the $1.000, to protect the county. The franchise is for fifty years.

They had been lovers years before in the East, but drifted apart. He was passing through St. Louis and learning that she was here, called upon her and the marriage resulted.

They separated in a short time. She claimed that he represented that he was wenithy, and that such was not the case. He denies her allegations and makes counter charges against her. He avers that she said that she married him to see what money he had. Since the divorce suit was filed they have lived together, according to his bill.

You Take Desperate Chances When You Neglect a Cold.

It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality and makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding cold, thereby paving the way for more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remday, famous for its cures of colds, can be had for a trifle?—Adv.
